Overdraft Line Of Credit Disclosure

- 1. When Your Finance Charge Begins – Use of your Overdraft Line of Credit Account will result in a Finance Charge. For each transaction, the Finance Charge will begin from the day your account is debited.
- 2. How Your Balance Is Determined – The balance used to compute the Finance Charge is the actual outstanding principal balance each day after credits are subtracted and new advances or other charges are added.
- 3. How The Finance Charge Is Determined – The Finance Charge is calculated by applying a daily periodic rate to the unpaid balance for the actual time the balance remains unpaid. The daily periodic rate equals the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE divided by the days of the year.
- 4. How The Rate Is Determined – The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) for the Overdraft Protection Line of Credit will be 13.90% above the Prime Rate Index as published in the Federal Reserve Statistical Release Selected Interest Rates, and in effect on the 15th day of the previous month but will not exceed 18.00%. The interest rate will change in the first month following the index publication date. Any increase in the APR will take the form of more payments of the same amount until what you owe has been repaid.
- 5. Your Minimum Payment Requirement – 4.00% of the loan amount each month or $40.00, whichever is greater.

Joint Ownership

A Credit Union member (primary owner) may make his or her account joint with a second party who may or may not also be a member of the Credit Union. Both parties may make deposits and withdrawals on the account. In the event of the death of the primary owner—when a joint owner has been named—the funds in the account will be made payable to the joint owner. Without a joint owner, the funds must be made payable to the deceased members' estate. Members may be joint owners on more than one Credit Union account.

All Credit Union accounts may have more than one joint owner. A joint account at the Credit Union is held as a Joint Account With Survivorship. Therefore on the death of a party to the account, the deceased party's ownership in the account passes to the surviving party or parties to the account.

Statutory Lien

Federal law grants us the right to impress a lien on all funds in any account that you have at the Credit Union if you are in default on a financial obligation with us. We may exercise this right without further notice to you. This lien applies to all accounts, except as prohibited by law, that you have with the Credit Union, including accounts which you hold jointly with another person.
